Sub: DAT- GSLIC – Instruction to stop recovery of premium in respect of officials whose retirement age got extended beyond 60 years– Reg.

The Life Insurance Corporation of India has intimated this office that under GSLIC Scheme, the retirement age registered with the Corporation is 60 years and risk covered upto the age of 60 and hence insisted to stop recovery of premium amount even if the service is extended beyond 60 years.

2. Hence the Head of Departments/Head of Offices/DDOs are requested to stop immediately further recovery of premium from the subscribers who continues in service beyond 60 years of age and submit the claim to those staff immediately.

3. It is further informed that claim will be preferred to this Directorate within three months from the date of attaining the age of 60 years in respect of Government servants in order to avoid any monetary loss to the individuals.
